CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:23-CV-758-P

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION
REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S SECOND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS TO COUNSEL
ROYCE LEMOINE AND AMANDA KATES

Pending before the Court is pro se Plaintiff Conghua Yan's Second "Motion for Sanctions to Counsel" Royce Lemoine ("Lemoine") and Amanda Kates ("Kates") [doc. 63], filed September 19, 2023. Having carefully considered the motion, and response, the Court finds, concludes, and RECOMMENDS that the motion should be DENIED for the reasons stated in Defendants' response.

The Court notes that this is one of four motions for sanctions that Plaintiff has filed [docs. 22, 33, 63, 74] and the second motion for sanctions Plaintiff has filed against attorneys Lemoine and Kates. While much of Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions is a pontification about the evils of the "'elite' legal community;" the crux of Plaintiff's argument is that Lemoine and Kates have made statements that he feels are attributable to his "abstract mental activities" and that there is no evidence to support them. (Plaintiff's Motion ("Pl.'s Mot.") at 7–8). Plaintiff previously raised this argument in his first motion for sanctions against Lemoine and Kates. (ECF 22). In an order dated August 31, 2023, the undersigned recommended, inter alia, denying Plaintiff's first motion for sanctions against Lemoine and Kates. (ECF 40). United States District Court Judge Mark Pittman adopted the undersigned's recommendation in an order dated September 18, 2023. (ECF 59). As mentioned in its previous order [doc. 79], the repeated, unwarranted filing of motions for sanctions against an attorney is a serious matter, which the Court will not continue to tolerate. If Plaintiff files any future frivolous motions for sanctions, the undersigned will recommend appropriate sanctions against Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED
AND CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO OBJECT

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), each party to this action has the right to serve and file specific written objections in the United States District Court to the United States Magistrate Judge's proposed findings, conclusions and recommendation within fourteen (14) days after the party has been served with a copy of this document. The United States District Judge need only make a de novo determination of those portions of the United States Magistrate Judge's proposed findings, conclusions and recommendation to which specific objection is timely made. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Failure to file, by the date stated above, a specific written objection to a proposed factual finding or legal conclusion will bar a party, except upon grounds of plain error or manifest injustice, from attacking on appeal any such proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the United States District Judge. See Douglass v. United Servs. Auto Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1428–29 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc), superseded by statute on other grounds, 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (extending time to file objections from ten to fourteen days).

ORDER

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636, it is hereby ORDERED that each party is granted until December 20, 2023 to serve and file written objections to the United States Magistrate Judge's proposed findings, conclusions and recommendation. It is further ORDERED that if objections are filed and the opposing party chooses to file a response, the response shall be filed within seven (7) days of the filing date of the objections.

SIGNED December 6, 2023.
